Is hosting a stockdog training clinic
June 26 & 27, 2010
Tomahawk Ranch
Parker, CO
Our clinician is Marti Parrish

Marti Parrish has been breeding and working Australian Shepherd Stock Dogs since the mid 1970s. She is both an ASCA Stockdog Judge and also AKC and AHBA Herding Judge. Throughout the years Marti has qualified and competed in the top ten with four of her dogs at The ASCA National Finals – winning the title of 1999 ASCA Champion Sheep Dog with her Justus N Katie McCain. Other notable wins include High In Trial Sheep and High in Trial at the 1985 ASCA National, 1996 National Most Promising Aussie. She has taken nine Australian Shepherds to their Working Trial Championship. She has also titled dogs at the advanced level in AKC, CKC, and AHBA. Marti has worked with many herding breeds. She has been sharing her positive training ideas and methods with students at her farm and through clinics conducted in Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Colorado, Oregon, Austria, Germany, and Sweden, as well as in her own home state of Washington.
